"A beautiful story of someone who has overcome a physical handicap and changed it into a force that is an inspiration."

—President Jimmy Carter

Change the way you see and you will change the way you live.

Gail Hamilton, as a blind person, knows about light and dark. Many people allow their fears to stop them from experiencing life to the fullest. However, this is not the case with Gail Hamilton. As a result, she inspires and encourages her audiences, unlike any other speaker... to live unstoppable, unforgettable, and unbelievable lives.
